

UNRULY LEGISLATORS

Socialists Cause Tumult in the French Chamber of Deputies.

The President Compelled to Suspend the Session to Restore Order—"Vive La Commune" Shouted.

PARIS, Jan. 27.—There was a turbulent scene in the Chamber of Deputies to-day, and the sitting was finally suspended perpetually by the President. M. Clovis Hugues, one of the Deputies from the Seine, interpellated the government on the recent arrests of Anarchists. During the course of his interpellation M. Clovis Hugues caused considerable interest on the part of the supporters of the government, by repeating the latter with a loud voice the words "Vive la Commune" as a pretext for suppressing the Socialists. The speaker also intimated that the government was acting with a purpose in illegally seizing correspondence.

M. Raynal, Minister of the Interior, replied that the government only applied the laws which had been passed by the Chamber of Deputies, and justified the seizures of correspondence by quoting extracts from the writings of Reclus, the fugitive friend of Vaillant.

M. Clovis Hugues said that the government had issued orders to the effect that the police were to suppress the domiciles of well-known Anarchists or people known beyond doubt to be in sympathy with Anarchists.

M. Raynal said it was difficult to distinguish between Anarchists and Socialists. In conclusion, the Minister of the Interior remarked: "Liberty is in no way menaced by the action of the government, but liberty must not be confounded with license. (Loud applause from supporters of the government.)"

Other speakers continued the debate and all the speeches were interrupted to a degree that the session finally became so turbulent that the President of the Chamber was compelled to order it to be suspended.

Then followed a scene which has rarely, if ever, been equalled in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Thivrier, a Socialist, stood up, shook his fists beneath each other's noses, several benches of the peace occurred and pugnae deputy went so far as to challenge a fellow member to decide their differences by a recourse to the sword. M. Thivrier, a Socialist, "Workmen's Deputy," who has already made himself notorious by his conduct in the Chamber of Deputies, became so excited that he threw his cap in the air and shouted "Vive la Commune" several times.

Other speakers continued the debate and all the speeches were interrupted to a degree that the session finally became so turbulent that the President of the Chamber was compelled to order it to be suspended.

Then followed a scene which has rarely, if ever, been equalled in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Thivrier, a Socialist, stood up, shook his fists beneath each other's noses, several benches of the peace occurred and pugnae deputy went so far as to challenge a fellow member to decide their differences by a recourse to the sword.

M. Thivrier, a Socialist, "Workmen's Deputy," who has already made himself notorious by his conduct in the Chamber of Deputies, became so excited that he threw his cap in the air and shouted "Vive la Commune" several times.

Other speakers continued the debate and all the speeches were interrupted to a degree that the session finally became so turbulent that the President of the Chamber was compelled to order it to be suspended.

Then followed a scene which has rarely, if ever, been equalled in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Thivrier, a Socialist, stood up, shook his fists beneath each other's noses, several benches of the peace occurred and pugnae deputy went so far as to challenge a fellow member to decide their differences by a recourse to the sword.

M. Thivrier, a Socialist, "Workmen's Deputy," who has already made himself notorious by his conduct in the Chamber of Deputies, became so excited that he threw his cap in the air and shouted "Vive la Commune" several times.

Other speakers continued the debate and all the speeches were interrupted to a degree that the session finally became so turbulent that the President of the Chamber was compelled to order it to be suspended.

Then followed a scene which has rarely, if ever, been equalled in the Chamber of Deputies. M. Thivrier, a Socialist, stood up, shook his fists beneath each other's noses, several benches of the peace occurred and pugnae deputy went so far as to challenge a fellow member to decide their differences by a recourse to the sword.

M. Thivrier, a Socialist, "Workmen's Deputy," who has already made himself notorious by his conduct in the Chamber of Deputies, became so excited that he threw his cap in the air and shouted "Vive la Commune" several times.

ist is that the Indian government is committed to the policy of defending Afghanistan from aggression from the north and to maintain the integrity of Afghanistan.

HEROISM AT SEA.

Seventeen Lives Saved by the Crew of the French Frigate, Le Havre. NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—The National line steamer France, Captain Hadley, which arrived here to-day, reports the rescue, during a hurricane on Jan. 13, in latitude 43° 33' longitude 16° 32', of the seventeen persons on board the wrecked Norwegian bark Havrelock. The Havrelock was fast breaking up when sighted by the France. Capt. Hadley speaks in terms of the highest praise of the members of his crew who went to the rescue of those on board the Havrelock. When the latter vessel was sighted a terrific sea was running and the progress of the France was attended with much difficulty. Notwithstanding the danger, the crew of the France immediately went to the rescue of the Havrelock and four of the crew quickly responded to the call to launch a lifeboat. The sea was running so high that this was almost impossible. Wave after wave swept the deck of the France, and time after time threw the boat just launched back against the steamer. A slight lull again gave the France men a chance to get away, and they promptly made for the Havrelock, which was lying on her side. The number of persons. The wreck was so surrounded by floating spars that it was most dangerous work to get near her, but finally nine of the crew of seventeen were taken to the France. A second trip was made, and the France proceeded on her way, leaving the bark rapidly breaking up. All the persons on the wreck had been clinging to the rigging for more than twenty hours when rescued.

Movements of Atlantic Liners.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Arrived: Emma, from Bremen; Germania, from Liverpool; France, from London; Fuerst Bismarck, from Hamburg; Paris, from Southampton. Departed: Germania, for Bremen; France, for London; Fuerst Bismarck, for Hamburg; Paris, for Southampton.

GOT $450,000 BY FRAUD

Extensive Swindle Unearthed by a Missouri Grand Jury.

Banks in Several States Victimized by Honoring "Accommodation Drafts" That Proved to Be Worthless.

KANSAS CITY, Jan. 27.—The grand jury, now in session here, has for days been investigating a deliberate scheme to defraud National Bank of Commerce out of $450,000. The scheme, which was carried out by a number of men, has been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless. The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

The grand jury has found that the scheme was carried out by a number of men, who have been traced to the fact that the banks in several states have honored "accommodation drafts" which were worthless.

BENHAM AS ARBITER

The American Admiral May Restore Peace in Brazil.

He Consented to Act as Mediator After Seeing the Rebel Leader and President Peixoto—One Conference.

(Copyrighted, 1894, by the Associated Press.) BUENOS AYRES, Jan. 27.—Dispatches received from a correspondent at Rio de Janeiro to-day, announce that, in all probability, Rear Admiral Benham, in command of the United States fleet in these waters, has, after communication with the United States government at Washington, succeeded in arranging terms satisfactory to the government of President Peixoto, and as well as to the insurgent commander, and that the rebellion is most likely at an end. As cabled several days ago, Admiral Benham had visited Rear Admiral Danha on board the United States flagship San Francisco, and requested the American admiral to do everything possible to bring about a peace between the insurgents and the government of Brazil. Rear Admiral Benham is reported to have informed Admiral Danha that while he was perfectly willing to do all in his power to arrange for peace, he could not act in his official capacity without receiving proper authorization from Washington. Admiral Danha, when he left the San Francisco, however, is reported to have assured that Rear Admiral Benham would ask for the necessary power from Washington and that upon receipt of the same he would act as mediator, he would communicate with Admiral Danha and let him know the attitude of the United States government in the matter.

Before calling to his government Rear Admiral Benham entered into communication with President Peixoto and informed the latter of the visit he had received from Admiral Danha and the request made by the insurgent commander about mediation. The President Peixoto is reported to have assured the Rear Admiral that he was willing to meet with the insurgents in a conference and that if the American officer could bring about a meeting between a representative of the President and Admiral Danha on board the United States flagship, some arrangements might be made which would put an end to the useless warfare now going on. Rear Admiral Benham is said to have cabled these facts to Washington and received authority to act in the matter. This was only the substance of the instructions sent, and the details of the matter in which the peace negotiations were to be conducted.

After receiving reports from Washington, according to the information imparted by the insurgent commander, Rear Admiral Benham notified Admiral Danha and President Peixoto that he was in a position to invite them or their representatives to a conference on board the United States flagship, looking for a settlement of the matters in dispute. Accordingly, President Peixoto sent his secretary on board the San Francisco, where he met Admiral Danha and the situation was discussed in the presence of the American Rear Admiral. The result of the conference is not known, but it is believed in Rio de Janeiro that the exchange of views on board the flagship will lead eventually to peace.

Admiral Danha is said to have made propositions which were regarded as entirely favorable to the insurgents, and the President Peixoto would be able to accept them. But the principle of arbitration seems to have been accepted by both sides, and it is believed that Rear Admiral Benham has been successful in his mission. The insurgent commander, who has been in an early settlement of the matters still remaining in dispute. Another meeting of the two representatives is expected in a day or two.

The correspondent at Rio says, in conclusion, that Rear Admiral Benham has carried out the mission which he was sent to Washington, and that his future action, to some degree, depends on additional advice expected from the United States.

Not Confirmed at Washington.

WASHINGTON, Jan. 27.—The information contained in the above dispatch cannot be officially confirmed here. At both the Senate and Navy Department inquiries as to the subject of the conference at Rio de Janeiro have been made, but no information on that subject.

CENTRAL AMERICAN WAR.

Severe Fighting Reported Around the Capital of Honduras.

MANAGUA, Nicaragua, Jan. 27.—Bloody struggles continue all around the capital of Honduras. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated. The fighting is especially severe in the city of Tegucigalpa, where the forces of the government are being defeated.

HERO OF THE SPORTS

Corbett Greeted by 8,000 People at Madison-Square Garden.

Enthusiastic Benevolent Reception to the Champion—Moderate Little Speech to the Cheerful Crowd.

NEW YORK, Jan. 27.—Fully eight thousand people attended the benefit reception for James J. Corbett, champion heavyweight of the world, at Madison-square Garden to-night. The audience was, perhaps, the most enthusiastic ever seated in a New York theater.

The management imposed several bouts on the audience and the crowd surged in from over one hour and a half several youngsters slugged or played with each other. Dan McBride and George Siddons, Ed Lober and Jack Young, John and Jerry Barnett were some of the pairs that afforded a little amusement.

Corbett was greeted by a sight of the champion and called for him repeatedly. As a balm for their enthusiasm, William A. Brady appeared and was greeted with many rounds of applause. He announced that Jack Dempsey and Denny Costigan would have a friendly bout. The mention of Dempsey's name raised a shout that made the rafters tremble and the crowd insisted on having a speech. Dempsey blushed, but never left his corner. Brady told the crowd that Jack thanked them all and wished to remind them that he had never been a speech-maker. Dempsey has grown very thin of late, but his popularity has by no means been lessened.

The bout had scarcely been finished when a shout went up from the corner of Corbett's direction. Corbett had started for the ring and the crowd surged in. Every man concentrated all the force of his lungs to do the champion's honor. A half dozen of his intimate friends fought a way for him through the howling mass. First in the line was a man named "The Heart of his Countryman," came thundering from the galleries and, with a shout, he ran to the ring and threatened to lift the roof off the building. If Corbett ever doubted the devotion of his friends, he was assured by the man who came to his aid. Ideas of himself must have been well confirmed by the reception he received. There about a dozen men, two of whom were on the platform, which continued as he threw off his long tunic. He wore a great white shirt, white tights and a pink shirt. Around his waist he wore a red, white and blue sash.

"Speech, speech," came thundering from all sides. Brady tried to make some announcement, but the crowd refused to hear him. "Let Jim speak for himself," some one cried. Corbett then spoke a few words, but he could not be heard in every corner of the house. He said: "Ladies and gentlemen, I am very thankful for your kindness this evening. All I can say is that I am glad to be in America, and I will always be ready to defend that title."

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word. The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

The crowd wanted to see the men that had figured at the big fight. Some one shouted for John Pomplun. He was called to the platform. He bowed modestly, but declined to say a word.

MODEL

With Us Price is no Longer an Object

OUR AIM IS TO GET RID OF THE GOODS.

It does not take a close observer to judge why the volume of our business is so much larger than that of all our competitors. We carry nothing but honest, reliable clothing. Our prices are always reasonable, and when it comes to the end of the season we sell goods so cheap that we cannot help cleaning up stock so as to start afresh the following season.

We are now going to give the poor man a chance. This week we offer All Our $10 and Some $12 Suits for And the Remainder of Our $12 Suits

$7.39. FOR $8.39.

We continue our cut price on all finer Suits, and all Overcoats and Ulsters. We have on hand about 200 Frocks and Sack Suits, mostly medium and small sizes, in Cassimeres and Cheviots, that sold for $10 and $8, which we will close at $4.98.

BOYS' DEPT. HAT SALE.

We have still about 100 Children's three-piece and Vestee Suits, which we have marked just ONE-HALF PRICE

$5 Suits, $2.50; $6 Suits, $3, etc. FOR $4.98.

We offer a good variety of Youths' Sack and Frock Suits. Sizes 28 to 33, which sold at $9, $8, $7 and $6.

Can We Fit You in Shoes? That Is the Only Question! Closing Out all Shoes at One-Half Price.

MODEL

MONDAY WINDOW BARGAIN SALE

ONE MORE CHANCE—THE LAST. One bargain among many for that day. Our complete line of French and English Cretonnes, fast colors, regular price 50c to $1.50 a yard; your choice for 25c a yard, and as many yards as you want as long as they last.

Take First Prize at the World's Fair.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 27.—Another offer of a big purse for the Corbett-Jackson contest has been received. D. Levy, secretary of the Tacoma (Wash.) Athletic Club, wired Jackson this afternoon, offering a purse of $500, which he would have had also notified William A. Brady of the offer.

Kentucky Feed Reopened. PRINCETON, Ky., Jan. 27.—The Moody-King feed, which has broken out with blood from time to time during the past years, has now another start. Yesterday, in Crittenden county, Ben King and Tom Moore, who were engaged to marry a Miss Moody, and there was a great deal of shooting, but it only served to renew hostilities. Further bloodshed is now expected.

1050 the Light Number. To order some of the delicious bottled beer of the Home Brewing Company, bottled at their own bottling department.

PEARSON'S MUSIC HOUSE. Easy: Monthly: Payments. 82 and 84 N. PENN. ST., INDIANAPOLIS

Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Rogers 1847 Knives, Forks and Spoons, Clocks and Spectacles. Largest, best and cheapest stock in this city.

We lead and make the prices way down. Don't buy until you see our Mammoth Stock and Low Prices. Now is your time to select. Entire stock will be sold at cost to reduce stock before invoicing, Feb. 1, 1894.

DIAMOND SALE A SPECIALTY. Fine Watch Repairing by Experts.

38 West Washington St. ART EMPORIUM. Telephone 503.

MANY MAGNIFICENT MIRRORS. See our window this week. All Mirrors.

THE H. LIEBER COMPANY, 33 South Meridian St. Sole Photographers.

M. M. CUMMINGS. FLOUR, FEED AND CEREALINES. 62 N. DEL. ST., opposite Market. Tel. 704.

NOW IS THE TIME.

MODEL

With Us Price is no Longer an Object

OUR AIM IS TO GET RID OF THE GOODS.

It does not take a close observer to judge why the volume of our business is so much larger than that of all our competitors. We carry nothing but honest, reliable clothing. Our prices are always reasonable, and when it comes to the end of the season we sell goods so cheap that we cannot help cleaning up stock so as to start afresh the following season.

We are now going to give the poor man a chance. This week we offer All Our $10 and Some $12 Suits for And the Remainder of Our $12 Suits

$7.39. FOR $8.39.

We continue our cut price on all finer Suits, and all Overcoats and Ulsters. We have on hand about 200 Frocks and Sack Suits, mostly medium and small sizes, in Cassimeres and Cheviots, that sold for $10 and $8, which we will close at $4.98.

BOYS' DEPT. HAT SALE.

We have still about 100 Children's three-piece and Vestee Suits, which we have marked just ONE-HALF PRICE

$5 Suits, $2.50; $6 Suits, $3, etc. FOR $4.98.

We offer a good variety of Youths' Sack and Frock Suits. Sizes 28 to 33, which sold at $9, $8, $7 and $6.

Can We Fit You in Shoes? That Is the Only Question! Closing Out all Shoes at One-Half Price.

MODEL

MONDAY WINDOW BARGAIN SALE

ONE MORE CHANCE—THE LAST. One bargain among many for that day. Our complete line of French and English Cretonnes, fast colors, regular price 50c to $1.50 a yard; your choice for 25c a yard, and as many yards as you want as long as they last.

Take First Prize at the World's Fair.

PITTSBURG, Pa., Jan. 27.—Another offer of a big purse for the Corbett-Jackson contest has been received. D. Levy, secretary of the Tacoma (Wash.) Athletic Club, wired Jackson this afternoon, offering a purse of $500, which he would have had also notified William A. Brady of the offer.

Kentucky Feed Reopened. PRINCETON, Ky., Jan. 27.—The Moody-King feed, which has broken out with blood from time to time during the past years, has now another start. Yesterday, in Crittenden county, Ben King and Tom Moore, who were engaged to marry a Miss Moody, and there was a great deal of shooting, but it only served to renew hostilities. Further bloodshed is now expected.

1050 the Light Number. To order some of the delicious bottled beer of the Home Brewing Company, bottled at their own bottling department.

PEARSON'S MUSIC HOUSE. Easy: Monthly: Payments. 82 and 84 N. PENN. ST., INDIANAPOLIS

Watches, Diamonds, Jewelry, Silverware, Rogers 1847 Knives, Forks and Spoons, Clocks and Spectacles. Largest, best and cheapest stock in this city.

We lead and make the prices way down. Don't buy until you see our Mammoth Stock and Low Prices. Now is your time to select. Entire stock will be sold at cost to reduce stock before invoicing, Feb. 1, 1894.

DIAMOND SALE A SPECIALTY. Fine Watch Repairing by Experts.

38 West Washington St. ART EMPORIUM. Telephone 503.

MANY MAGNIFICENT MIRRORS. See our window this week. All Mirrors.

THE H. LIEBER COMPANY, 33 South Meridian St. Sole Photographers.

M. M. CUMMINGS. FLOUR, FEED AND CEREALINES. 62 N. DEL. ST., opposite Market. Tel. 704.

NOW IS THE TIME.